GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The program for the coming Memphis meeting is out. It shows that the stake events of the meeting will be run off on the following dates:

Saturday, April 8—Montgomery Handicap, 1 1-16 miles.
Monday, April 10—Tennessee Oaks, 1 mile.
Tuesday, April 11—Gaston Hotel Stakes, 1-2 mile.
Thursday, April 13—Ardelle Stakes, 1-2 mile.
Saturday, April 15—Tennessee Brewing Co. Stakes, 7-8 mile.
Tuesday, April 18—Tennessee Derby, 1 1-8 miles.
Thursday, April 20—New Gayoso Hotel Stakes, 1-2 mile.
Saturday, April 22—Cotton Steeplechase Stakes, 2 miles.
Tuesday, April 25—Luehrmann Hotel Stakes, 1 mile.
Thursday, April 27—Memphis Stakes, 5-8 mile.
Saturday, April 29—Peabody Hotel Handicap, 1 1-8 miles.

The development of Montgomery Handicap candidates, the first big handicap of the legitimate racing season, is becoming more pronounced every day, and speculation as to the probable starters is rife. It is now figured down to the following possibilities:

Horses.	Wgt.	Horses.	Wgt.
Algol.....	126	George B. Cox.....	104
Lieber Karl.....	117	Danois.....	100

—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

The Commercial-Appeal reports the following moves at the Memphis track Monday: "Lieber Karl and Ordnung worked seven-eighths together in 1:34. Queen of Song, a Crescent City Derby candidate, was sent a mile in 1:48, and Jolly Roger breezed a mile and an eighth in 2:02. Two of A. H. & D. Morris' two-year-olds, Bonnavard and Petit Maitre, worked four furlongs in :51½, which is the best work yet credited to the youngsters. Bonnavard is a fine-looking chestnut colt, by Russell—Bonnelia, and Petit Maitre is by Cayuga—Prudery. "Rain Monday night made the track sloppy. Owners and trainers, however, were out bright and early with their charges. Several two-year-olds were sent halves in :53, and Charles Patterson's two-year-old colt, by Order—Happy Sally II., First Past (a full brother to Jolly Roger), worked the same distance in :51½. Manuel gave a good performance by negotiating five furlongs in 1:05. W. Overton worked three-quarters in 1:21½."

The San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman says: "Marcus Daly, the Montana copper king, has a pair of well-bred three-year-olds in training for the Brooklyn Derby. One is called Tamar. He is a well-turned colt by Tammany—Oriole, the dam of Ogden, who won the Futurity of 1896, and beat some of the best of the handicap horses last season in races of a mile and a furlong and under. This colt Mr. Daly believes will prove a better horse over a distance of ground than Ogden was. In conformation and general appearance he is not unlike his sire. The other Daily candidate is Tagharin by Inverness—Tradewind, the dam of Gotham and Geisha. He, too, is a promising colt."

The starting gate works all right is Australasia. The reason is the jockeys and the owners are not allowed to abuse it. How does this item from the New Zealand Sporting Review strike the enemies of the gate and advocates of the recall flag: "It is not easy to match the cunning jockey. It is an old dodge for the rider of a stiff 'un to whip round on the post and pretend that the barrier has given his prad a rude shock. Jockey Carson tried this little game at Mentone (Victoria) the other day and went up in consequence for a year. Owners, however, are really more to blame in those cases than the jockey, and in this case the owner (W. Brown) was disqualified for five years."

Riley Grannan is going to chinook the poor Englishers this year. Wednesday he sailed for Southampton on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. Instead of making things hum at Gravesend, Sheephead Bay and Morris Park he proposes to try his hand at Lincoln, Doncaster, Liverpool, Ascot, Newmarket, Goodwood and Epsom, and the fact of his going over in time to catch Sloan's first race is taken as an indication that he means to start in at the drop of the flag and go down the line. Whether he proposes to make book or take chances on the outside is a question. He was not willing to declare himself, but in either capacity he is likely to figure as the most unique American personality seen on the British turf since the palmy days of "Plunger" Walton.

Douglas & Bailey, of Eothen Stock Farm, Middletown, Ky., have claimed the following names for their yearlings. The last of Eothen's progeny are in the list:

Eolala, ch. f, by Eothen—Alala H.
Alberta Young, b. f, by Henry Young—Alberta.

Eover, b. c, by Eothen—Quiver.

NORTHERN CIRCUIT STAKES.

As to prospects for the coming season of racing over the tracks composing the Northern Circuit the Nashville American says:

"Walter O. Parmer, secretary and manager of the Canadian racing circuit, has returned from Detroit, whence he went to receive the entries to the seventeen stakes which closed recently.

Mr. Parmer says there is a slight decrease in the number of entries as compared with his last season's list, the principal falling off being in the two-year-old stakes. Notwithstanding this, he received nearly 700 entries, with several California lists yet to arrive.

"Among the entries are nearly all of the high class horses of three years old and upward racing in the west, and Mr. Parmer anticipates some great contests in his handicaps. No matter how light the list of entries, it is the policy of Mr. Parmer not to declare off any of his stakes.

"Manager Parmer is considering the advisability of giving a twelve-day meeting at Highland Park, Detroit, from May 3 to May 18, closing just in time for the horses to reach Toronto for the opening day there on May 20. Mr. Parmer's idea in giving this meeting previous to the opening of the regular Canadian circuit is to give the horsemen an opportunity to break the shipment, as most of those going to Toronto come from the southern and western tracks and the scheme would be equally as advantageous to the Toronto and Hamilton meetings as to the tracks comprising the Parmer-Hendrie circuit. None of the closed stakes will be run at this early meeting, but the program will consist of purses and overnight handicaps of from $250 to $400 each, six or more races each day.

"It would seem a good spot for a number of the eastern campaigners to drop into, especially inasmuch as the east gives promise of being a harder territory than ever this season for a horse of mediocre caliber to earn brackets. Mr. Parmer says he is almost positive this meeting will be given.

"Mr. Parmer also asserts that several wealthy Canadians, who heretofore have been unknown to the racing game, stimulated by the success of some of their associates, have declared their intention of taking an active interest as soon as the season opens up.

"So promising is the future of the Bel Air Jockey Club at Montreal that it has determined to erect a new grandstand, club house, betting ring and paddocks. Work on them is to begin April 1, and they are to be pushed rapidly to completion. At no place in the country has racing taken such a rapid and firm hold upon the society people and moneyed men as at Montreal. Everything points toward a thoroughly successful season for the Canadian circuit."

THE CALIFORNIA SITUATION.

There is good reason for believing that the California legislature will relieve San Francisco racing. A bill has been put into the California senate which legalizes racing and its speculation. It will be backed by the best of influences in the state. John Mackey, superintendent of Rancho del Paso is the leader in an influential movement by petition, which declares that the ordinance passed by the San Francisco supervisors will ruin the industry of raising thoroughbred horses—one which yields millions to California every year. There is some humor in the police action against Ingleside betting. Chief of police Lees fell into a trap set for him by attorney Henry Ash Wednesday. Hugh L. Jones, bookmaker and horse-owner, was arrested again for no other offense than displaying odds against horses that were scratched. No offense in the eyes of the law was committed and Lees will have some trouble saving the city from a damage suit.

New Orleans Doings.

NEW ORLEANS, March 16.—The stewards suspended Jockey Hothersall indefinitely for his ride on Our Clara in the second race. L. W. Hoyt & Co. claimed Dollie Wiethoff out of the second race for $450.

MR. BELMONT'S STABLE.

Mr. A. Belmont's stable is deemed very strong this year. Ethelbert is the star of the lot and, in the opinion of good judges, will take high rank as a three-year-old. The horses are at Morris Park in charge of trainer A. J. Joyner. An eastern writer who has recently inspected Mr. Belmont's horses says of them:

"A. J. Joyner's Ethelbert, Lackland (formerly Frohsinn), Autumn, King's Pride, Sagasta, Touraine, Prince of Wales, Big Indian and Tender, which comprise his three-year-old division, all did trotting and cantering exercise. The two-year-old division, consisting of Bombay, Chenango, Kitchener, Mercer, Gold Buckle, Lexicon, Big Gun, Quintilis, Back Talk, Little Squaw, Gonfalon, Rene, Jamaica, Orderless, Osprey and Oviad are at similar work. All of the string look well. The horses are not too heavy, but are just right to go into strong work, which is one of the chief features in the art of training.

"Ethelbert is wonderfully well, and looks all over a horse of high-class.

"Lackland has improved very much, having furnished and filled out, especially in his quarters and second thighs, and I look for this hardy son of Spendthrift to show improvement over his two-year-old form, although I have no idea that he will be within seven pounds of several of his age.

"Autumn, muscular and hard as nails, is of Lexington type all over, and while he has not been favored in the handicap he is such a performer that he will pay his way.

"Of the two-year-olds in the string, Gonfalon, Kitchener, Mercer and Chenango all look as if they ought to show stake form. Chenango, who is the property of O. H. P. Belmont, is by St. Blaise—Susquehanna, and a full brother of Potomac, winner of the Futurity in 1890. He is a big boned, powerful colt, nicely balanced and with a hard, game look about him. He is hardly one of the sort to come to hand early.

"Gonfalon is a very handsome and bloodlike colt by Fonso—Fatima, and is decidedly the best looking of the youngsters owned by Mr. Perry Belmont.

"Kitchener, owned by Mr. Wm. Beverly, is a beautifully bred colt by Himyar—Lady Agnes, by St. Blaise. He is a black, lengthy, level, well furnished colt. He shows a great deal of quality and is a beautiful mover.

"Mercer, by Sir Dixon—Merdin, by Hindoo, is likely to prove of high class and has lengthened and grown, but without furnishing much."

CALIFORNIA RACING TROUBLE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 16.—The racing situation here is unchanged. The race for the California Derby has been postponed. The races tomorrow and Saturday will be from the regular program, excepting the Derby for Saturday. Legislative relief is expected. The police are still in charge. Hand books were made in a small way on each race.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

T. H. Ryan's string of horses from California with Danois at the head reached Memphis Wednesday, sound and well.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

After the running of the Crescent City Derby on March 25 all George C. Bennett's horses will be in charge of Trainer Dick Stickney.
Tom Nepper has ten of the old division with him at New Orleans, and will send Hittick to the post for the Derby. Then the New Orleans contingent will be shipped to Memphis and placed in charge of Dick Stickney, who has been handling the two-year-olds since last fall.

The buttons for the members of the New Memphis Jockey Club for 1899 are in the hands of the manufacturers and will be distributed the latter part of March or early in April. The design selected this year is in the shape of a jockey's cap, with the initials M. J. C. and 1899 standing out prominently in enamel.

"Horses in Training," 1899, will be published March 25. It will contain a complete list of the horses in training (including two-year-olds) in this country, giving name, color, sex, age and pedigree, as well as the owner, trainer and stable jockey. Price, $1.00 in leather, 50 cents in paper binding.

Elliott C. Cowdin, of Mount Kisco, N. Y., will return to the turf this season with a sterling string of two-year-olds. Mr. Cowdin knocked off racing last year in order to take part in the campaign against Spain. The youngsters are mainly from their owner's Kentucky stock farm.

George Hendrie, of Canada, has purchased of Edward Fee, of Detroit, the four-year-old mare
Our Lizzie, by Cavalier—Vim, for $500. Mr.
Hendrie expects to race quite a string in the Canadian circuit this season.

The local papers of Wednesday published a fable about the Washington Park Club having declared not to give a race meeting this year.
Secretary Howard says that no such declaration was made.

Ed Trotter is at the Lakeside, Ind., track with eighteen horses belonging to Louis Ezell and "Kid" Weller. Sixteen are two-year-olds.
Buena Ventura and Virgie Dixon are in the Ezell bunch.

January 28, at Appin, a jockey named Thompson won the whole of the seven races on the card, and then won a match, making eight consecutive wins.—New Zealand Review.

The Lexington track will not be saved for racing. Charles Green of St. Louis, its owner, has decided to cut it up into lots and sell all its buildings at auction.

He was badly ridden too, and closed strong. Bonnie Ione ran about to her mark. Major Hooker was shut off, bumped and poorly managed. It was too far for Schnitz. Judge Wofford could never keep up.
Scratched—10912 Crossmolina, 91.
Overweights—Ulm, 3 pounds.
Annowan, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Ulm, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Bonnie Ione, show, 8 to 5.

Garbo ran an improved race. He is partial to mud. Sisquoc was badly ridden. Tab Sir Hampton. He is green, but has speed.
Mortgage, place, 2 to 5. Garbo, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 2:24 1/2.
Winner—Ch. g. by Oregon—Superba.
Start good. Won cleverly; next two ridden out. Granger was best, is in fine form and runs best on soft going. Durwad is a most promising jumper. He was lucky, but ran an improved race and is honest. Tortoni was slow to get going and finished strong. St. Jacob was always outrun. Three Forks is of no present account. Neither is J. O. C., though, he looks well.
Granger, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Durwad, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Tortoni, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 2:51, 52 1/2, 1:19, 1:45 1/2.
Winner—Ch. c. by El Rio Rey—Ogalena.
Start straggling. Won in a hard drive of four. Rey Hooker ran an extra good race for him. He was away well and had clear sailing all through. The going was in Jerry Hunt's favor. He got off flying and was only headed in the last stride. Espionage was much the best and should have won, but she got a bad start and was badly ridden besides. The Fretter ran an honest race. Wing needs a strong rider. Whaleback ran a bad race.
Rey Hooker, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Jerry Hunt, place, 7 to 10.
